1.

2. Traveling west from Palm Beach we reach the Everglades. Here a short while back alligators could be found by the hundreds but today few of these great reptiles remain.
3.

3. With the early streaks of morning light our camp is hastily broken up.
4.

4. Forward to the boat.
5.

5. Armed with shotgun and pole our hunters shove off.
6.

6. With ceaseless strokes the frail craft skims over the muddy surface.
7.

7. Lithe, Powerful, fearless, - alert.
8.

8. A lily pad does not hinder our progress.
9.

9. Curious
10.

10. Laid in conically shaped nests made of decayed vegetation. We were informed that 30 eggs were the average number to be found in a nest.
11.

11. Mamma 'Gator spends most of her time at the neighbors basking in the sun and endeavoring to look as attractive as possible.
12.

12. Now for the "layer".
13.

13. Each stroke brings its heart throb. Each rustle its expectancy.
14.

14. No time for hesitation, @ just act.

15. One last effort.
16. His new home and master.
17. Here the alligator is prevented from becoming exterminated.
